

SCHOLARS' LAB WORKSHOPS

Fall
2011

ITS Software Workshops

Introduction to SPSS

Wednesday, September 28
2pm
Curry Library Innovation Commons

This workshop is designed to introduce users to the use of Excel and SPSS for data management and analysis. Instructor: Nancy Kechner.

Introduction to SAS

Thursday, October 6
2pm
Alderman Library Electronic Classroom

Introduction to the statistical software SAS. Instructor: Kathy Gerber.

Eye Candy: Exploring Interesting Visual Displays of Data

Wednesday, October 12
2pm
Curry Library Innovation Commons

This workshop is designed to introduce users to data visualization. Instructor: Nancy Kechner.

Introduction to R

Wednesday, October 19
2pm
Alderman Library Electronic Classroom

Introduction to R, the widely used open source statistical environment. Instructor: Kathy Gerber.

NVivo

Wednesday, October 26
2pm
Curry Library Innovation Commons

This workshop will explore principles and techniques of qualitative analysis using NVivo from QSR International. Instructor: Nancy Kechner.

Elements of Creating Solid Graphs for Quantitative Data

Wednesday, November 9
2pm
Curry Library Innovation Commons

Introduction to creating solid graphs for quantitative data. Instructor: Nancy Kechner.

image courtesy Flickr user misterbisson

All Scholars' Lab / ITS workshops are free and open to all. No registration is required, and there are no prerequisites.

Scholar's Lab
4th Floor, Alderman Library
University of Virginia

<http://scholarslab.org/>